ASSUMPTION OF STATE DEBTS BY THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT.—Whatever doubts may heretofore have existed as to this being a course of policy that found favor in the eyes of the Clay Whigs, they are now entirely set at rest, by its advocacy in the leading journals of that party in the country. The Courier and Enquirer of the 7th, gives the subject, in an article of some length, its hearty approval, and several other journals of the same political stamp, including the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette, have responded in language of the warmest approval.—New Orleans Republican.

PROGRESS OF THE CAUSE.—Extract of a letter dated Woodville, (Miss.), November 7, 1842:

"We have now in favor of Calhoun for the President of the United States, the Senator of this, Pointexter's old County, and the two Representatives, who were all Harrison men in the last Presidential election, when he received a majority of 514 votes over Van Buren. Now we are all sanguine in this county of giving Calhoun a decisive majority. The fact is Calhoun is the decided favorite in this State for the Presidency."—Charleston Mercury.

FROM VERA CRUZ AND TAMPIO.
The United States ship Falmouth arrived at the south-west Pass on the night before last, from Vera Cruz and Tampico. She experienced very severe weather during the passage, having lost one of her quarter boats and sustained some slight damage to her rigging and hull.

By one of the officers of this ship we learn, that when the Falmouth left Vera Cruz, the steamer City of Dublin, captain Wise, and an English barque, were taking in troops for Campechy. The soldiers are represented by him as the finest Mexican troops he ever saw. The captain of the City of Dublin had stated, that the Mexicans had made five attacks on Campechy, in which they had repulsed, with considerable loss; and he gave it as his opinion, that the place would not be taken, as the ships could not approach sufficiently near to make their Payham guns effective. Santa Anna was still at his country seat a few miles in the rear of Vera Cruz.

New Orleans Republican.

The Rev. Mr. Wood, of the Baptist church, will preach on to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, in the church, in Canton.
